FAILURE TO PREVENT ENCROACHMENTS IN JHANSI AND KANPUR CANTONMENTS

, 3116. SHRI RARIQUE ALAM :
t SHRI ANANTRAY DEVSHANKER DAVE : Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government have been failing to protect Government properties within Jhansi and Kanpur Cantonments;

(b) whether Cantonment Officers have been approaching Government to regularise encroachment with retrospective effect in some cases;

(c) whether a section of officials are hand in glove with encroachers and illegal builders;

(d) if so, what punitive measures are being taken against the defaulting officials; and

(e) what is the present status of premises number 128, The Mall, Kanpur?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (SHRI MAL-LIKARIUN) : (a) to (e) Cantonment Boards Jhansi and Kanpur have been taking action under the Cantonments Act, 1924 and the Public Premises (Eviction of Unauthorised Occupants) Act, 1971 protect Government properties from the encroachers in the Cantonments.

In Kanpur Cantonment, 4 encroachments have been reported on A-I land comprising Survey No. 220, 329, 746 and 776A which were of 1976—82 vintage. Action under the Public Premises (Eviction of Unauthorised Occupants) Act, 1971 to remove these encroachments have been initiated. Cantonment Board Kanpur has, in two special drives in September 19901 and November 1992, removed 2500 encroachments on the land under its management. As on- 1-10-1993 there are 2165 encroachments covering an area of 35.5 acres.

In Jhansi Cantonment, 3 encroachments on A-I land of 1972-73 vintage have been reported. Two cases pertaining to Balmiki Mandir and Kali Mandir have been regularised by the Government on 10-12-80. The third case is pending in Allahabad High Court. Cantonment Board, Jhansi Sn a special drive, removed 17 encroachments covering an area of 402.60 square metres in 1992-93 and 23 encroachments covering an area of 230.06 sq. metres in 1993-94. Two cases are pending in civil courts. In one case, action has been initiated under the relevant provisions for eviction. At present, there are 22 encroachments covering an area of 1900 sq. metres approximately.

Action has been taken to remove these encroachments and some of thse encroachers have gone to courts.

No instance of Cantonment officers approaching Government to regularise encroachments with retrospectJve effect and their connivence with encroachers have come to the notice of the Government.

As regards Bungalow No. 128, The Mall, Kanpur, the premises are held on lease under the Cantonment Code, 1912. As the lessee had carried out certain deviations frota the sanctioned building plans, the Cantonment Board had initiated prosecution under Section 184 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 and also issued notices under Sections 185 and 256 of the Act. The party had submitted an appeal under Section 274 of the Cantonments Act. The Cantonment Board had filed a civil suit m the Court of Munsif, Kanpur against the party for permanent injunction.'
